

June 1, 1973

PRESIDENT: Everybody's here, but...

CLERK: We have four excused and there are four absent.

PRESIDENT: Proceed to the Roll Call vote.

CLERK: Roll Call vote.

PRESIDENT: We are under Call of the House.

CLERK: Roll Call vote continued.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Switching from yes to no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Goodrich switching from yes to no.
Senator Fred Carstens, for what purpose do you rise?

CLERK: 29 ayes, 16 nays, 4 not voting.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Do we have other motions on the desk? Senator Carpenter, for what...excuse me. Senator Fred Carstens, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR FRED CARSTENS: Mr. President, I want to ask for a point of order. I was..ask..excused for a brief period this morning when 235 was called up. Is it in order, I was absent, I believe under the Rules I can ask for reconsideration. Is that correct? I move that we reconsider our action of June 1st on 235.

PRESIDENT: Senator Fred Carstens is asking to reconsider the vote on LB 235. Is there need for further discussion of that motion? All right. Senator Carstens, we have some other motions on the desk here and we really would be taking yours out of order. Let's dispatch these and then we will come back to yours and would you write it up and lay it up here on the desk, please, so we can keep some semblance of order here. Please. This can get terribly complicated. All right. Do we have another motion on the desk?

CLERK: Yes. The next one, Mr. President, is I move we reconsider our action of 256. Signed, Senator Luedtke.

PRESIDENT: All right. The chair recognizes Senator Luedtke for reconsideration motion on 256.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Mr. President, I would move this reconsideration because of the fact that as you well know the Judiciary Committee has labored for some three years to perfect what we believe to be one of the finest Penal Correctional Reform plans in the United States. It has been recognized as such by Penal experts, professional consultants, not only our own but others. The Governor in his veto of this bill has sent this down the drain. He has absolutely killed all chance for Penal Correctional Reform for years to come and I feel that if this Legislature really analyzes what's going on here today, they will reconsider and at least give us a chance to get started on a three year program of putting into effect Penal Reform.

PRESIDENT: Is there any further discussion on the motion? The question is shall we reconsider the action on LB 256. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. The motion is to reconsider the action on LB 256. That takes 25 votes. Once again, have you all voted? Have you all voted. Senator Luedtke.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Are we under a Call, Mr. President.
